

LGBTQ Rights in Florida

EQUALITY AND OUR SHARED JEWISH VALUES

DID YOU KNOW...

that there are no statewide protections for LGBTQ people in Florida?
that in many places in Florida, a person can be fired, denied housing, or refused services because of their sexual orientation or gender identity?

The Florida Competitive Workforce Act would establish nondiscrimination protections for LGBTQ Floridians in employment, housing, and public accommodations.

Keshet, along with LGBTQ rights advocates and organizations as well as Jewish communities across Florida, are working to ensure that the equal rights and basic dignity of all people are protected here in the Sunshine State.

All people should have the basic right to earn a living, have a place to live, and enjoy a meal. The Florida Competitive Workforce Act would make those rights a reality for LGBTQ people.

The Florida Competitive Workforce Act is supported by over 450 businesses – from Fortune 500 companies to locally owned shops. This work for equality is a fundamental part of our Jewish tradition.

Respect, loving your neighbor as yourself, solidarity, and the belief that we are all created in the Divine image. These values call us to raise our collective voice for LGBTQ equality and the Florida Competitive Workforce Act.
